Dear Parents and Friends,

Congratulations to all the children who received the Sacrament of Confirmation over the past two evenings. Both Masses were beautiful and moving celebrations. The Sacrament was conferred by The Vicar General, the very Reverend Father Tony Percy, who spoke to each of the children very knowledgeably about the Saint after whom they had chosen to be named. He reminded them that they were gifted with the fruits of the Holy Spirit and that their mission now is to share these with all whom they meet as they journey through their lives, just as their chosen saints had done. I especially thank the Religious Education Coordinators from both St Jude’s and St John Vianney’s schools, Mrs Thomas and Mrs Chant, for their excellent organisation of the Masses and Retreat Days and for preparing the children in the lead up to the Sacrament. I also thank the Year 6 teachers, the catechists from the Centre for Faith and Life and Mrs Camille Corson for the part they played in preparing the children to receive the Sacrament and I thank Father Brannelly and Deacon Vince for their presence at both Masses and their prayers for the children.

End of Semester Reports
Reports were either collected by parents or sent home with the eldest child today. For students who were absent, the reports will be mailed. If for some reason you do not receive a report for your child, please notify the front office. Please keep the reports in a safe place as they may be needed in the future for enrolment in other schools.

Staffing News
As you are aware, Mrs Natalie McCallum has accepted a temporary teaching position in Brisbane for the remainder of this year. Mrs McCallum’s teaching position was advertised and, following a panel selection process, I am pleased to advise that Miss Tess Harveyson has been appointed to teach Year 1/2 St Nicholas for the second semester of 2016. Miss Harveyson is known to the school as she completed a very successful Practicum in Year 5/6 last year. I take this opportunity to welcome Miss Harveyson to the staff and the community of St John Vianney’s. I know that Miss Harveyson will thoroughly enjoy teaching the class for the remainder of this year. You may be aware that Mrs Katherine Eastick has been successful in securing a place as a Catholic Education representative at World Youth Day in Poland. She has also been chosen, from the delegation, to be the flag bearer for the Archdiocese of Canberra and Goulburn. As a school community, we are very proud of Mrs Eastick’s achievement and I take this opportunity to congratulate her and wish her well on her travels. Mrs Eastick will be in Poland to participate in a guided pilgrimage prior to attending the events of World Youth Day. As a result, she will be away for the first three weeks of next term.

Mrs Donna Gordon will be teaching the class for the time that Mrs Eastick is away overseas. I take this opportunity to welcome Mrs Gordon to the school community and thank her for agreeing to take on this short term contract. Mrs Gordon is well known to us as a relief teacher who has taught every grade at various times over the past few years.

Awards Ceremony
Congratulations to the students who received awards at today’s Awards Ceremony!
It is great to see the students recognised for their hard work and achievements. Thank you to Mrs Mullamphy, the band and the choir for their wonderful performances. Thanks also to the teachers and Year 6 students for hosting the assembly.
Walkathon
We were blessed to have the sun come out and shine on us today for the Walkathon. Though the air was still very ‘fresh’ outside, the whole school enjoyed the walk around our neighbourhood and warmed up on the way! Thank you to everyone who has been involved in the lead up to this day. I especially thank Mr Mark Konik and Mrs Sonia Dutkiewicz who took on the task of coordinating the event. Thank you also to all teachers, parents, families and friends who volunteered to help on the day and parents who have been involved with the counting of incoming monies and sourcing of prize donations and sponsorship. The St John Vianney’s Walkathon is always a big event but it would not be possible without the support of our community. Finally, a great big ‘thank you’ to the children and families who have been out and about raising funds for the school by filling up sponsorship forms!

Student Teachers and Work Experience Students
This term, it has been wonderful to have people who are studying to be teachers journeying with us through each day’s learning experiences. They have thoroughly enjoyed their time in our school, working alongside our dedicated and professional staff and working with our very engaged, courteous and friendly students and maintain that they have learned a great deal. We wish them every success in their future teaching careers.
It has also been a pleasure to host Ethan Plenty and Anne Stricke who completed a Work Experience Program in several classes and the library. We have benefitted from the extra assistance and have enjoyed their company.
We thank all the students for their commitment to making the best of their time in the school and for the wonderful contributions they have made to the school.

I wish everyone a happy and safe holiday break and look forward to seeing the children again when school resumes on July 18 for the start of Term Three.

I don’t usually pass on chain emails, however, a friend sent me the following email and I thought it was worth sharing.

Heteronyms -- Enjoy!

Homographs are words of like spelling but with more than one meaning. A homograph that is also pronounced differently is a heteronym.

You think English is easy??

I think a retired English teacher was bored...THIS IS GREAT!

1) The bandage was wound around the wound.
2) The farm was used to produce produce.
3) The dump was so full that it had to refuse more refuse.
4) We must polish the Polish furniture.
5) He could lead if he would get the lead out.
6) The soldier decided to desert his dessert in the desert.
7) Since there is no time like the present, he thought it was time to present the present.
8) A bass was painted on the head of the bass drum.
9) When shot at, the dove dove into the bushes.
10) I did not object to the object.
11) The insurance was invalid for the invalid.
12) There was a row among the oarsmen about how to row.
13) They were too close to the door to close it.
14) The buck does funny things when the does are present.
15) A seamstress and a sewer fell down into a sewer line.
16) To help with planting, the farmer taught his sow to sow.
17) The wind was too strong to wind the sail.
18) Upon seeing the tear in the painting I shed a tear.
19) I had to subject the subject to a series of tests.
20) How can I intimate this to my most intimate friend?

Let’s face it - English is a crazy language.

There is no egg in eggplant, nor ham in hamburger; neither apple nor pine in pineapple. English muffins weren’t invented in England or French fries in France. Sweetmeats are candies while sweetbreads, which aren’t sweet, are meat. We take English for granted. But if we explore its paradoxes, we find that quicksand can work slowly, boxing rings are square and a guinea pig is neither from Guinea nor is it a pig. And why is it that writers write but fingers don’t fing, grocers don’t groce and hammers don’t ham?

If the plural of tooth is teeth, why isn’t the plural of booth, beeth? One goose, 2 geese. So one moose, 2 meese? One index, 2 indices? Doesn’t it seem crazy that you can make amends but not one amend? If you have a bunch of odds and ends and get rid of all but one of them, what do you call it?

If teachers taught, why didn’t preachers praught? If a vegetarian eats vegetables, what does a humanitarian eat? Sometimes I think all the English speakers should be committed to an asylum for the verbally insane. In what language do people recite at a play and play at a recital? Ship by truck and send cargo by ship? Have noses that run and feet that smell?

How can a slim chance and a fat chance be the same, while a wise man and a wise guy are opposites? You have to marvel at the unique lunacy of a language in which your house can burn up as it burns down, in which you fill in a form by filling it out and in which, an alarm goes off by going on.

English was invented by people, not computers, and it reflects the creativity of the human race, which, of course, is not a race at all. That is why, when the stars are out, they are visible, but when the lights are out, they are invisible.

PS. - Why doesn’t ‘Buick’ rhyme with ‘quick’?

I wish everyone a lovely, restful and peaceful holiday.

Thought of the week:

“Piglet: ‘How do you spell love?’

Pooh: ‘You don’t spell it, you feel it.’”
This week, 49 children from our Parish received the Gifts of the Holy Spirit in the Sacrament of Confirmation (9 from SJV). The ceremonies this year were held on Wednesday night at St Judes and last night, here, at SJV. The very Rev. Fr Tony Percy officiated both celebrations which were beautiful and reverent with Fr. Tony commenting on how well prepared the children were and how serious they seemed about making this adult decision about their faith. Fr. Tony was the Parish Priest in Young when I made my Confirmation so it was nice to have him celebrating with our wonderful Year 6 children, who, coincidently are the first class I have prepared to receive all 3 school aged Sacraments here at SJV; Reconciliation in 2012, Eucharist in 2013 and now Confirmation 2016.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the people who were involved in preparing the children to receive the Sacrament as well as all the people who made the Confirmation ceremony as wonderful as it was.

I would also like to thank the Year 6 children who did not receive the Sacrament but who journeyed with the above children for their support and prayers along the way.

Confirmation certificates have been reprinted today and will be sent out early next term.

I can’t believe another term has come and gone. Have a great week and a safe and happy holiday!

ELC NEWS

The Joeys and the Wombats were very lucky to have a visit from our year 5 buddies from St John Vianney’s on Monday. The Joeys had a lovely party to farewell Mrs Kay (and Marley) and invited the Wombats for cake! The Wombats also enjoyed lots of music and singing with Ms Shanahan this week. The Echidnas spent some time reading library books with their buddies in 5/6SC. They also did some baking with marshmallows and rice bubbles.

Farewell Mrs Kay – This week we said farewell to Mrs Kay who has worked in the Joeys class since the opening of the ELC in 2014. Peta is a superb educator who has been much loved by the Joeys children, parents and staff. We wish Peta all the best with her studies and hope to see her back some time in the future. Mrs Candy will replace Mrs Kay in the Joeys room.

Holiday Care – There are still places available in ELC holiday care. Please let us know if you’d like to join in for one or more days.

Fees – Final ELC fees for the term are now due. Please ensure that your accounts are up to date prior to the end of term.

We hope you have a safe and restful holiday.

ALARM FOR NON-GOVERNMENT SCHOOLS IN GREENS’ POLICY

The National Catholic Education Commission and Catholic School Parents Australia have warned that the Australian Greens’ education policy will create uncertainty for non-government schools, limit school choice for families and students, and could cause Catholic school fees to increase.

NCEC executive director Ross Fox said the Greens are using the final days of the campaign to promote their educational policy, but the policy creates conflict between the government and non-government sectors and could undermine the education Catholic schools provide to 765,000 students across Australia.

“The Greens’ education platform calls for funding for government schools to be prioritised ahead of non-government schools, irrespective of need,” Mr Fox said. “This position cannot be reconciled with the Greens’ stated commitment to needs-based, sector-blind funding.

“The Greens have called for funding to be taken from non-government schools and given to government schools. Taking money from non-government schools will certainly see school fees rise dramatically. Taken as a whole, the Greens’ education policy would be likely to damage non-government schools across Australia.”

CSPA chair Tony O’Byrne said while schools, parents and students will welcome additional support for teaching and learning, non-government – and especially Catholic – school parents have grave concerns over the Greens’ broader education policy.

“Parents who choose Catholic schools, including many parents who aren’t Catholic, have made that choice because of the ethos and values present in that community,” Mr O’Byrne said.

“The Greens’ plans to dictate the employment policies of Catholic schools would be a direct attack on their identity and on school choice. It is a concern to all those who value non-government schools and the contribution they make. Such an imposition would fly in the face of the fundamental right to religious freedom and the right to freedom of association.”

Mr Fox said Catholic schools, located in every corner of Australia, are educating growing numbers of students with disability and Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students, working in partnership with students, teachers, school staff, parents, governments and other schools to create a high-quality Australian education system.

“Catholic schools currently receive, on average, 83 per cent of the per-student funding a government school receives, with parents making a significant contribution to their child’s education,” he explained. “That contribution would have to grow if the Greens的原则 of funding being sector-blind, as well as needs-based.”

Mr O’Byrne said hundreds of thousands of Catholic school parents and grandparents will this weekend want to give their backing to a party that supports the education of their children and grandchildren.

“Many of us lived through the divisive debate on school funding, pitting sector against sector, and it is deeply concerning that some political parties wish to reignite that debate,” he said.

“School choice is overwhelmingly valued by parents. Parents are concerned that there would be a seismic shift in the way Catholic schools can operate if the Australian Greens were in a position to implement their school policies.”
